The screenshot shows the main interface of TuneUp Utilities 2013. At the top, there is a blue header bar with the application name "TuneUp Utilities 2013" on the left and navigation links "Like", "Settings", and "Help & Support" on the right. Below the header, there are five tabs: "Status & recommendations", "Optimize computer", "Clean up computer", "Fix problems", and "Customize Windows". The "Status & recommendations" tab is active, showing four main sections: "Maintain system" (Automatic), "Increase performance" (Attention), "Fix problems" (Warning), and "System protection" (Enabled). Each section has a corresponding icon and a button to interact with it. Below these sections, there are two more panels: "PC optimization mode" with "Economy", "Standard", and "Turbo" options, and "Optimization Status" showing a progress bar at 40% and a notification about 8 problems. A trial period expiration notice is also visible at the bottom right.
